Current Research

My current research is focused on two projects : 1) Developer innovation and emerging industries - based on my related book - and 2) contemporary science and collaboration among scientific disciplines, around the work of philosopher Anne-Françoise Schmid.

- Paper in progress Contribution Matrix : a method to analyze individual participation in complex exploratory projects. An application on the case of the UPSat satellite, with Kevin Desouza, ASU. To be submitted at the IEEE Transactions on Engineering Management.
- 2019 (in Press) « L'intimité collective en tant qu'échelle d'analyse pour le développement industriel », in A. Gentes and P. Chrysos (Ed.) La création épistémologique : rencontres autour des travaux d'Anne-Françoise Schmid, in Press (Note : a chapter in op.cit. on the role of “collective intimacy” in industrial innovation).
- 2019 (in Press) « Introduction », with Annie Gentes, Avner Perez, Muriel Mambrini, Anne-Françoise Schmid, in « La création épistémologique : rencontres autour des travaux d'Anne-Françoise Schmid » (op.cit.) (Note : introduction to the book).
- 2019 (in Press) « Conclusion : L'aventure épistémologique contemporaine », with Annie Gentes, Avner Perez, Muriel Mambrini, Anne-Françoise Schmid, in « La création épistémologique : rencontres autour des travaux d'Anne-Françoise Schmid » (op.cit.) (Note : conclusion of the book).
